

Dr Desmond Ong Luan Seng

Designations:

Family Physician, Consultant, National University Polyclinics (NUP)

Qualifications:

MBBS (S'pore), M.Med (Family Medicine, S'pore), FCFP

Dr Ong obtained his M.Med degree in Family Medicine in 2010, and passed the FCFP in 2016. He is currently working in Jurong Polyclinic. On top of seeing patients, as key trainer in Jurong Polyclinic, he has been responsible for the teaching of doctors, keeping them up to date in medical education. On the institutional level, he is the lead in the Women's Health Specialty Advisory Group (SAG) in NUP, and has successfully overseen the transition from the old cervical screening guideline to the new one, changing from the conventional Pap smear to liquid-based cytology, and incorporating HPV testing.

Dr Ong is a Lecturer at the Division of Family Medicine, Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine, National University of Singapore (NUS). He has a strong interest in teaching, being a clinical tutor to students for both NUS Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine and Lee Kong Chian School of Medicine. He is a member of the core faculty of the Family Medicine Residency Programme at NUHS, as well as a supervisor for the FCFP. He is also keen on research, and is particularly interested in the areas of Women's Health, and chronic diseases.
